Dear Members of the Admissions Committee:

This letter is to serve as my personal statement regarding my application as a first-year student to the University of Utah College of Law.

First, it is necessary that you understand why I was unable to attend in the Fall, 1973 after having been accepted to your College of Law. The decision was made with extreme reluctance and regret. Having been accepted as a first-year law student early in 1973 I was very excited and quickly returned my confirmation. Only the intervention of a very serious circumstance could have prevented my attendance.

→ Two weeks prior to the August 31st orientation session I was injured in an automobile accident. Still determined to attend Utah, I made every effort to accelerate my recovery both in and after leaving the hospital. The physical and financial complications persisted, finally forcing me to concede that I would not be in any condition to travel and study for several weeks after the beginning of Fall Semester, 1973. I notified Mrs. Karen Knudson of the situation.

This interruption in my future plans was a great disappointment to me. However, six months of working and being active again has served to confirm my desire to study the law. The initial depression one experiences when important plans must be abandoned has been overcome. I am extremely eager to begin pursuing my long-held objective to study law. It is also still my intention to study the law at the University of Utah. The excellence of your program of legal studies, the beauty of the campus and the State in general, the natural vitality of the people of Utah still attracts me. Of substantial influence in my decision to come to Utah has been my fiancee who was born and raised in Ogden and attended college in Logan. She would very much like to return to the area and resume working with her father who is a physician in Ogden. In short, I feel I am prepared to enter law school as if there had never been any interruption at all.

Every day my interests draw me to issues that have significant legal implications. I want to obtain the tools to deal constructively with those issues at the University of Utah College of Law.

Sincerely,

Theodore R. Bundy

Dear Mrs. Knudson:

It is with extreme and sincere regret that I must inform you that for reasons of personal health and finance I will be unable to attend the University of Utah College of Law.

A recent auto accident has left me ~~unable to travel~~. I fear that my physical condition could also limit my ability to study the first year course material. I had hoped I could recover in time to arrive by August the 31st.

If my failure to attend has caused you difficulty I am deeply sorry. I do concern me that the position offered to me might go unfilled because of the lateness of the hour. I hope it is not too late to find a deserving student to attend your fine law school in my place.

Sincerely,

Theodore R. Bundy
